STORY OF THE FIRST CHURCH

First church in the Jenison area was the First Jenison Christian Reformed Church which was organized July 18, 1875 with a membership of 56 which included confessing members, baptized adults and baptized children. At that time, Jenison was a wilderness.

Before the Jenison church was organized, many of the Dutch immigrants walked nine miles to Spring Street Christian Reformed Church on Commerce Street in Grand Rapids. That was in 1857.

As their number increased, they found it more expedient to gather at school house or homes, from homes to school house and from school house to the upper rooms of the Jenison General Store. They listened to sermons read by one of their members until the years 1872-1873 when they met in the home of Sietse Bos. They expressed a desire to be organized as a church.

The "De wachter" of August 19, 1875 had an official report stating that on July 18th, a new Christian Reformed Church was organized in Jenisonville by rev. K. Vanden Bosch of Grand Haven.

The first decade was a period of struggle. The land was not easily cleared of the pine stumps and oak shrubs. In the spring there was excess surface water, yet to get a good well was costly. By now Jenison consisted of two churches, a large feed mill, a hotel, a saloon, a foundry, about thirty dwellings, a blacksmith shop, a creamery, two general stores, and the Chicago and Western Michigan railroad depot, but service was inadequate to permit working in Grand Rapids.

The Jenison brothers had donated some ground at the "fork" in the road and some building material. The consistory purchased some additional space. Much labor was donated. Towards the end of 1876, eighteen months after organization, the first little Jenison church was completed. The building was 40 x 32 feet with a seating capacity of 150. A rail fence protected the house of worship from roving cattle.

In the summer of 1885, a parsonage was built. By now the congregation had grown to fifty-four families. The church and parsonage were debt free. In August 1886, rev. T.M. Vanden Bosch accepted a call to be their pastor. The pastor's salary was according to the times. A good milk cow supplied the family with milk and butter, chickens supplied the eggs and a garden produced the vegetables. Farmers brought other supplies. A good horse enabled the reverend to make pastoral calls. He stayed for twenty-two months.

During Rev. Vanden Bosch's stay, the church became too small and was lengthened twenty-four feet. Stables were built to accommodate 40 horses. Even though the church was without a pastor for five years, an East wing was added to the church, not because it was too small, but because the west winds were too strong.

In 1909, the congregation decided to purchase new pews, giving the old ones to the Bauer church, which organized in 1902. The following year, 1910, they purchased a new pipe organ to be pumped by hand. It was during this time that people were coming across the Grand River via the Jenison ferry.

In January of 1915, a Bell Telephone was installed in the parsonage and the first english services were started--two Sunday evenings per month, to begin in may, 1915. The following year the congregation decided to build a basement under the church; to install new furnaces and electric lights in the church and parsonage.

From 1921 to 1927, the congregation grew from ninety-six families to one hundred and nineteen families.

On May 31st, 1929; it was decided to have church bulletins. On March 10, 1930, the Hanley Methodist Church was purchased and mission work began. That same year on Sept. 15, a christian school started in the basement rooms of the church.

At the close of 1937, the congregation had grown to 175 families for a total of 793. It was decided, in 1937, to rebuild and enlarge the church. This was accomplished by the following year.

The next few years saw a drainage system installed to offset the danger of water in the basement, the church yard was graveled and graded, and in the summer of 1947, street lights were installed in Jenison. The following year a new three manual Schantz organ was installed to replace the one used for almost thirty years.

In 1975, First Jenison Christian Reformed Church marked 100 years. Just a month before, they had moved into a new house of worship on 10th Avenue and Cottonwood.

There are current openings on the JHA Board. Would you consider volunteering a few hours a month to maintenance of the museum and learning about and preserving our Jenison heritage? Please contact a board member or send an email to info@jenisonhistory.org.

Volunteer Opportunities!!

Museum Cleaning: This is a big job, as you can well imagine, that needs constant attention in order to have the museum look it's best during the open houses. Contact any board member if you can lend a few hours.

Tour Guides: The school tours are a great way of teaching the children about our history and is such a rewarding experience. You won't regret being a part of this experience for our local children. Joyce Klawiter would love to hear from you.

Community Displays: An initiative is to get some displays out into the community, possible to local banks, schools and businesses. What better way to get awareness out into the community than to bring the museum to them. Grayce Lancaster is heading up this project. She would welcome any help you might be able to offer from finding the locations to picking display material and setting up the displays.

And the list goes on... Monthly Open Houses, Theme's for Open Houses, Inventory, Museum Maintenance, board trustee.

You can come to a monthly meeting or reach out to any board member if you would like to volunteer in any particular area.
